You must notify the Office of Financial Aid if you receive a non-University award. Non-University awards include all scholarships and grants awarded by agencies other than Financial Aid. They include National Merit or National Achievement Scholarships, ROTC scholarships, and any scholarships awarded by churches, high schools, businesses, civic organizations, etc.

Applicants must complete a separate award notification for each Non-University award received.

Reductions may be necessary to your financial aid package. In most cases, work-study and/or loan awards will be reduced first. If necessary, need-based grants will be reduced last.
