Public Service Announcement

The Department of Music of Methodist College is proud to present Alice Rose Patterson in her senior voice recital, Wednesday, April 13, at 7:30 P.M. in Reeves Auditorium. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Patterson of Eastover. The former "Miss Methodist College" is a member of the Methodist College Chorus, as well as the critically acclaimed "Rainbow's End." Ms. Patterson will present songs from Copland, Handel, Bach, Schubert, and Mozart.

Public Service Announcement

Adding to the variety of the Fine Arts Festival at Methodist College, "God's Clods Clown Group" will be conducting a clown worship workshop on April<sup>1</sup>13 at 3:30 p.m. Pre-registration will be in the Student Union building on Apr 6 from 10:00-11:00 a.m. Following the workshop, everyone is invited to a special worship service in Hensdale Chapel at 6:30 p.m. Come and learn the place of clowning in the worship experience, and perhaps see God a bit differently.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

If you enjoy speaking French or reading subtitles, then Methodist College has the perfect film for you. Too Shy To Try is a hilarious romantic adventure that is suitable for all ages. This 1982 full-length feature will be shown April 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union Snack Bar at Methodist. Admission is free.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

If you recall the days of Saturday morning cartoons with a fond glow, or maybe even harken back to the days of cartoons before those westerns on the silver screen, you'll enjoy the special Terry Toon cartoons exhibit of photos and memorabilia in the Methodist College Library April 8-16. Pat Leahy, daughter of Paul Terry--the creator of the Terry Toon Company, will lecture at Methodist Thursday, April 14 from 9:30-10:45 and tell her tales of the hey-day of hand-drawn cartoons. A Terry Toon premiere of cartoons unseen for 20 years will take place at noon and 12:30 the same day. Share your past and bring the children as well. "Here he comes to save the day. ..."
