REV. WESLEY BROWN RECEIVES DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARD

FAYETTEVILLE, NC—The Methodist College Alumni Association has awarded its Distinguished Alumni Award for 1997 to The Reverend Wesley Brown, Class of 1973. The award was presented Nov. 1 at the College's annual alumni banquet.

A resident of Durham, N.C., Rev. Brown is the Associate Dean for External Relations at Duke University Divinity School, where he received a Master of Divinity degree in 1976. An ordained elder in the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, Rev. Brown held several pastorates before joining the administration of the Divinity School in 1981. His primary duties are fund-raising, alumni relations and public relations. He is a member of the faculty for the Divinity School and serves on advisory boards for the National Association of Theological Schools.

A native of Kinston, N.C., Rev. Brown majored in religion at Methodist and graduated summa cum laude. While a student at Methodist, he was an S.G.A. senator, sang in the college chorus, and served as a residence hall counselor in Sanford Hall. Since graduating, he has served on the board of directors of the Methodist College Alumni Association and has been a trustee of Methodist Retirement Homes of N.C. and the Methodist Home for Children. In 1991, Methodist College presented him a Methodist College Medallion for his devotion and service to ministerial education within the United Methodist Church.

After accepting the award, Rev. Brown expressed his appreciation to the alumni board and to Parker Wilson, Dr. Lorenzo Plyler, Dr. Bob Christian and other Methodist College faculty members who had made "Quality Education in a Christian Atmosphere" a reality for him and thousands of other undergraduates. He said he remains proud of his alma mater.
