

SGA Meeting Minutes
1-21-09

Chris Coats called meeting to order at 6:00pm

Pat Murphy called role; Ralph Chew and Corey Bragg were absent

Chris Coats Swore in the new Senators: Treniece Burton, Thomas (Daniel) Lee, Paris Ryan, and Taron Stubbs.

Thomas Hutton brought in the topic of the To-Go containers

We decided that we would not go back to Styrofoam.

We decided that we must get rid of the current containers and move on to the bigger, more sturdy, to-go container.

Brandon Davis said that the new containers are on their way.

Thomas Hutton suggested that we go back to Styrofoam for now, this idea was rejected.

Everyone agreed that the containers need a better checkout system.

Willie Barnette brought the idea that we should have a business card type item that we could use for the system. Brandon Davis liked this idea

Thomas decided to get with the food services committee to discuss this further.

Jeff Headman brought in the idea that with the money we saved we shouldn't be charged for the containers, this idea was well-liked by the senator.

Thomas Hutton closed the discussion on the containers to be handled by him and the food committee on their own time.

Brandon Davis informs us on the 5-star steak and shrimp dinner in the cafeteria on January 27.

The senators compliment Brandon Davis on the food quality this semester so far.

Brandon Davis Clarified that the Cafeteria was not under new management he is merely second in command.

Brandon Davis informed the Senate that you can now check out the menu two weeks in advance and check the nutritional facts of the different food choices.

Chris Coats brings into the discussion the DSL Conference

Chris Coats informed the senate that the front gate will have directions to the church, and there will be a shuttle service going to the church at 8:00am on Saturday and come back at 1:30pm.

The shuttle service will meet in front of the cafeteria.

The question was posed "what is DSL" and Chris Coats informed the new senators of what DSL is. Dean Blanc then passed around the brochure for the Conference.

Thomas Hutton asked for volunteers to help set up on Friday at 1:00pm and they decided to meet at the SGA office.

Chris Coats then asked for volunteers for Registration on Saturday morning, Taron Stubbs, Treniece Burton and Thomas Lee volunteered.

Sean Teeter informed the registration volunteers to show up at 7:30am on Saturday.

Thomas Hutton informed all senators not helping with registration to show up at 7:30 as well, reminded them to dress in business casual, and also informed the senators to sit together.

Thomas Hutton drew a diagram of St. Andrews United Methodist Church and advised everyone where to park and where to enter.

Dean Blanc encouraged all the senators to invite anyone they know to the conference.

Thomas Hutton opened up Senators Forum

Willie Barnette asked if for graduations senators could get a pin, Stoll or something along those lines

Dean Blanc said that he would look into this and get it taken care of before this graduation.

Paris Ryan suggested that we get a plaque for all the SGA members and their titles posted in all the dorms and the public area.

Dean Blanc suggested that we rent out the back page of the small talk newspaper.

Sean Teeter said that he would put something in the roar about the new senators.

Paris Ryan said this was not enough he wants more; a hard copy in every dorm.

Taron Stubbs asked about the televisions in the Bern's why they don't work. He also inquired about the pool tables; he suggested that we offer a work study position to check out pool sticks and balls. This idea was well accepted.

Dean Blanc explained how there used to be a company that did a program for the televisions.

Paris Ryan brought in the idea of putting these televisions to use for the SGA.

Dean Blanc suggested that the PR committee do something with this.

Sean Teeter agreed and said he would talk to Dean Walker.

Willie Barnette suggested that we incorporate MU Radio with this project and told Sean Teeter to talk to Sarah Crist about this.

Thomas Hutton requested that Sean Teeter report back to the Senate next week on his progress.

Taron Stubbs expressed a concern that not enough people knew about SGA.

Sean Teeter asked for all senators to email the executive board a picture of themselves to help advertise SGA

Thomas Hutton Closed Senator's Forum

Dean's Message and Executive Message

Chris Coats Closed the meeting at 7:10pm