REPORTING CRIMES & EMERGENCIES ON CAMPUS

To report a crime or other emergency 24-7-365, call the Department of Public Safety at 910-630-7577 or 910-630-7098 or activate one of twenty-two call boxes located on campus. A University Police and / or Security Officer will respond, based upon the nature of the call. Two other options to report a crime: Campus Crime Stoppers line at 910-630-7287 or online through Silent Witness @ witness@methodist.edu.

Or you can also dial 911, for any significant emergency or dangerous situation that may pose an immediate or on-going threat to the health and safety of the campus community. Please also notify the Methodist University Department of Public Safety at 910-630-7577 as soon as possible.

When you call, a Public Safety Telecommunicator will request specific information and contact additional personnel such as fire and rescue when required. Crimes reported to the Auburn University Department of Campus Safety & Security will be assessed for timely warning notification and potential inclusion in the annual statistical disclosure.

Emergency Call Boxes

The university has emergency call boxes strategically located throughout the campus. These phones can be identified by the yellow casing or a green stanchion with the blue lights and reflective signs above their location. Press either the red or black call buttons for a direct voice connection with the Department of Public Safety.

Crime Stoppers

The objective of the Methodist University Crime Stoppers Program is to provide the community with an incentive to help the Department of Public Safety reduce and prevent crime. If you have information regarding a crime that has taken place, will take place or other suspicious activity, please call: 910-630-7287. Remember, we want your information, not your name!

Silent Witness

To complement our Crime Stoppers Program, the Department of Public Safety has implemented the Silent Witness Program. Like the Crime Stoppers Program, the Silent Witness Program allows an individual to report a crime in an anonymous manner. The individual can do this from the privacy of any computer on or off campus. Submission of the information is completely confidential. However, with this program, you have an option as to whether or not you wish to provide your contact information. Any individual can send an e-mail directly to: witness@methodist.edu.

MUPAWS (Alertus App)

As part of the emergency notification system app, students, faculty and staff are able to utilize the call Public Safety/Report an Incident from their smart phone. The individual can do this by opening up the app and either click on the “Call Public Safety” or click on the “Report an Incident”. If an individual clicks on the “Call Public Safety” they will be able to speak directly with an officer. Under “Report an Incident” the individual will have a selection of types of incidents that they are able to report to Public Safety.

Timely Warnings

The Methodist University Department of Public Safety will issue timely warning notices to members of the university community whenever a crime is reported directly to Auburn University Department of Campus Safety and Security, campus security authorities or local law enforcement that is determined by the director of Public Safety, or a designee, to represent a serious or ongoing threat to students or employees. Such warnings will be provided to students and employees in a manner that is timely and that withholds the names of victims as confidential. Timely warnings will include pertinent information about the crime that triggered the warning and information that promotes safety and aids in the prevention of similar crimes. Resources and reporting options may also be included in timely warnings.

Timely warnings are usually distributed when a situation or crime poses a serious or ongoing threat to the campus community and they occur on campus; in certain off-campus buildings and property owned or controlled by the university and used by students; and on public property within or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.

Timely warnings will generally be distributed to the university community via blast e-mail and/or via Methodist University Department of Public Safety non-emergency social media outlets (Facebook, Twitter and/or Instagram: @mupublicsafety). The Methodist University Department of Public Safety and/or the Methodist University Department of Public Relations develops the contents of the messages and initiates distribution of the messages via these systems.

Campus Security Authorities

In addition to University Police and Security Officers, community members may also report incidents of sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking or other crimes to the persons listed below. The crimes that are counted for purposes of recording hate crimes in this report cover the offenses of murder/non-negligent homicide, negligent homicide, sex offenses, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, motor vehicle theft, arson and the extra offenses of larceny-theft, simple assault, intimidation, and destruction/damage/vandalism of property. To include these crimes as a statistic to hate crimes it must be shown that the victim of the crime was intentionally targeted or selected because of the perpetrator's bias to the victim in some way. If any of these crimes were reported to campus police and there is some evidence that the crime was committed because of some type of bias to the victim it should be noted to the entity receiving the report.

Complaint Adjudication Procedures against Students

1. Definitions and Jurisdiction:

Sexual discrimination, as defined herein, is strictly prohibited by Methodist University. Sexual discrimination includes sexual harassment and sexual violence. Sexual harassment is unwanted conduct of a sexual nature. It includes unwanted requests for sexual favors and other unwelcome sexual advances, and may be verbal or non-verbal. Sexual violence is a form of sexual harassment, and means physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person's will, or when the person is incapable of giving consent because of a disability, drug or alcohol use, or another reason. Examples of sexual violence include rape, “date-rape,” sexual assault, and forcefully coercing someone to have sex or perform a sexual act. The procedures of this section apply only to complaints made against a Methodist University student for engaging in some form of sexual discrimination. The person making the report of sexual discrimination is known as the “Complainant.” The person whose conduct is complained about is known as the “respondent.”

2. General Procedure

a. Receiving a Complaint: Complaints of sexual discrimination may be made to the Director of Human Resources at 910-630-7385, who is Methodist University’s designated Title IX coordinator. Complaints against students will be forwarded to the Dean of Students for further processing. Complaints of sexual violence will be forwarded to campus police and to the Dean of Students. Concurrently, the respondent will be given written notice that a complaint has been made against him or her, and given a copy of these Procedures.

b. Police investigation separate: A Complainant may make a report of sexual discrimination, including sexual violence, to the campus police or another law enforcement agency, to the Director of Human Resources, or both. The fact that a police investigation is ongoing does not relieve Methodist University of its obligation to investigate reports of sexual discrimination as provided herein. If campus police receives a report of sexual discrimination, campus police shall promptly notify the Director of Human Resources.

c. Investigation: Upon receiving a complaint, the Dean of Students or designee shall fully investigate the facts alleged in the complaint, including, at a minimum, an interview with the Complainant, an interview with the respondent, and an interview with any witnesses to the conduct complained of. A respondent shall not be required to be interviewed, and the Dean of Students will draw no negative inference from the respondent’s refusal to be interviewed. The interviews shall be recorded, and any relevant documents or other evidence gathered by the Dean of Students or designee will be preserved.

d. Interim Measures: The University will not automatically restrict a student from attending classes or participating in other University activities on the basis of a complaint of sexual discrimination. However, Methodist University reserves the right to impose interim remedial measures at any time upon receiving a report of sexual discrimination, if the University has concerns about the safety of the Methodist community. Such measures may include, but are not limited to, restrictions regarding movement on campus, removal from University housing and/or removal from campus. The decision to impose interim measures is made by the Dean of Students. The University will also enforce any court order.

e. Retaliation prohibited: Retaliation against anyone who brings forward a complaint of sexual discrimination is strictly prohibited. Anyone responsible for retaliation or threats of retaliation, whether that person is the accused party, someone affiliated with the accused (i.e. a friend or family member), or any other party, will be subject to disciplinary action by the University. Retaliation should be reported promptly to the Dean of Students. Retaliation by a person not affiliated with the University may be addressed by the police.

3. Adjudication:

a. Dean of Student's Referral: Upon completion of his or her investigation the Dean of Students or designee shall:

i. If, in the interview with the Dean of Students or designee, the respondent denied committing the conduct complained of or if the respondent refused to be interviewed, the Dean of Students or designee shall refer the case to the Administrative Hearing Board.

ii. If, in the in the interview with the Dean of Students or designee, the respondent admitted committing the conduct complained of, the Dean of Students or designee shall order an appropriate sanction, and shall consider a range of sanctions from no sanction to expulsion.

b. Administrative Hearing Board: The Hearing Board shall be made up of five members of the Methodist University community and shall be comprised of faculty and staff. The Hearing Board shall convene within five calendar days of the Dean of Students or designee referring his or her report to its Chairperson. The proceedings of the Hearing Board shall be recorded. Attorneys shall not be permitted at the proceedings, and the proceedings shall not be open to the public.

i. The Hearing Board shall consider the investigation of the Dean of Students or designee, including recorded interviews, documents, and other evidence, and the submission of the Complainant, if any. The Hearing Board will not draw an inference of responsible from the Complainant's refusal to submit materials for its consideration or refusal to be interviewed by the Dean of Students. The Adjudication Panel may decide the case based solely on the record presented to it.

ii. If the adjudication panel believes further investigation is necessary, it may:

- (1) Send a written request or email to the Dean of Students asking him or her to conduct further recorded interviews or attempt to obtain other evidence, which request the Dean of Students shall make every effort to comply with within five calendar days; and/or,
- (2) Recess and gather additional documents and evidence on its own, and then reconvene to consider it; and/or
- (3) Recess to make arrangement to question witnesses, and reconvene to do so. Witnesses may be questioned, in-person or through other means, except that the respondent may not be required to testify in front of the Hearing Board and no negative inference may be drawn by the respondent's refusal to do so.

iii. When the Hearing Board has satisfied itself that it has fully considered the facts alleged in the complaint, it shall, by a simple majority vote, make a determination that more likely than not the respondent committed sexual discrimination as defined herein, or more likely than not the respondent did not commit sexual discrimination as defined herein.

iv. The adjudication panel shall promptly inform the Dean of Students or designee, in writing or by email, of its determination.

c. Sanctions: If the Hearing Board determines that the respondent committed sexual discrimination as defined herein, the Hearing Board shall order an appropriate sanction, and shall consider a range of sanctions from no punishment to expulsion. The Dean of Students shall promptly inform the respondent of the adjudication panel's determination and of the sanction imposed, if any.

4. Appeal:

The Complainant may appeal the adjudication panel's determination, the sanction, or both. Appeals must be in writing and are made and adjudicated by the Appeal Board pursuant to the procedures of that body, which are detailed in the "Code of Conduct" section of the Methodist University Student Handbook. However, notwithstanding any provision of the Student Handbook to the contrary, when adjudicating an appeal of sexual discrimination, the Appeal Board shall simultaneously consider whether grounds for an appeal exist, and adjudicate the appeal. When so proceeding, the Appeal Board may consider only the record of the case, including any written submissions by the Complainant, and its proceedings are closed. Its proceedings, however, shall be recorded and the recordings preserved. The decision of the Appeal Board is final.

5. Notice to Complainant:

After the Appeal Board determines the appeal of the Complainant, or after the time for an appeal lapses if the respondent files no appeal, the Dean of Students or designee shall inform the Complainant of the determination of the Hearing Board, of the sanction imposed, if any, and of the results of the appeal.

REPORTING AND SUPPORT RESOURCES FOR SURVIVORS OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE

Procedures To Follow If A Sexual Assault Occurs

Any person who alleges that an act of sexual violence has been committed against him or her has the right to report what happened. If the offense occurred on the Methodist University campus, the survivor is encouraged to notify University Police 910-630-7577 (24 hours) or the Dean of Students Office 910-630-7152 (business hours) or the Center for Personal Development 910-630-7150 (business hours). If the offense occurred off campus, the survivor is encouraged to file a report with the appropriate law enforcement agency.

Anonymous (sometimes referred to as “blind”) reports are accepted by University Police and local law enforcement agencies in cases of sexual violence when the survivor does not want to pursue criminal charges against the perpetrator or if the report is not directly from the survivor. No criminal investigative activity is undertaken without authorization from adult survivors or the parent or guardian of juvenile survivors. However, the University is obligated by federal law (Title IX) to conduct to the fullest extent reasonably possible a separate non-criminal investigation of all received reports of sexual violence. The survivor is encouraged to provide as much information and evidence as possible, even if he or she does not want to pursue criminal charges. A survivor’s initial decision not to pursue a criminal investigation does not preclude the possibility of pursuing criminal prosecution at a later date.

As it conducts investigations of sexual violence, Methodist University will take all reasonable measures to protect the identity of survivors of alleged sexual violence and comply with any request from the survivor for confidentiality. To the extent allowed by - applicable law, Methodist University will not identify survivors of sexual violence in otherwise publicly available records. If a determination is made that the university reasonably cannot comply with a survivor’s request for confidentiality, the survivor will be directly notified of same.

Recommendations for Survivors in the Aftermath of Sexual Violence:

- (1) If the sexual violence occurred on the campus contact the Methodist University Police Department immediately at 910-630-7577, or “9-1-1” as soon as you safely can. If the assault occurred off-campus and in the City of Fayetteville, contact the Fayetteville Police Department immediately at 910-433-1529 or “9-1-1”. NOTE: Methodist University Police Officers will provide assistance to survivors in filing complaints in other non-campus jurisdictions.

- (2) Biological, medical, and physical evidence are important in order to identify perpetrators and help hold them accountable. This vital evidence should be collected and preserved as soon as possible. The collection and preservation of such evidence does not require a survivor to publicly identify himself or herself or decide whether to prosecute a perpetrator.
- (3) In order to preserve potential biological (including DNA) or physical evidence, survivors of sexual violence are advised not to...

- Bathe or Shower
- Use the Bathroom
- Change Clothes
- Comb or Brush Hair

before speaking with a medical professional, survivor advocate or, if desired, a law enforcement officer.
