Abstract

The care clinic offers a variety of services to surrounding counties' residents depending on their eligibility. Individuals in the community will benefit from the services that are offered. The Agency offers services to the public, but also one must remind themselves that it is important to understand the funding, mission, and personnel. The goal, mission, and objectives will be explained. A thorough analysis of The Care Clinic will be provided to give an understanding of how the agency functions in its entirety.

Agency/Community Analysis

The Care Clinic of Fayetteville North Carolina is an agency that is located at 239 Roberson street in Fayetteville North Carolina. As a human service agency, the agency is designed to assist with the well-being of adults that reside in Cumberland County. They provide free health services such as basic medical care, dental, labs, chiropractic, pharmacy services, and social services.

Structure of the Clinic

The Care Clinic is a private agency and is run by grants and donations. The staff mainly consist of volunteers, and some paid staff members. My role in the agency was as a medical social worker intern.

Agency Goals

The goals and objectives of The Care Clinic are listed on the banner and the seal for the clinic. Those singular goals are compassion, assistance, referral, and education. Each staff member and volunteer must have strong levels of all these skills in wanting to assist the community. The clinic believes that if growing compassion and assistance within healthcare in the community, the clients may also need education on their healthcare needs.
