

SCHEDULE OF FACULTY RESEARCH PRESENTATIONS, APRIL 15 AND 19, 2013

MONDAY, APRIL 15

11:00 a.m.

Hendricks 122: Matt Kesic, "Fighting Back against Asthma: Exploring Novel Therapeutics to Reduce Airway Inflammation"

Yarborough Auditorium, Clark Hall: Josiah Baker, "Defense Spending, Taxes, and Welfare: Key Votes in the House and Senate"

Alumni Dining Room, Berns Student Center: Peter Murray, "Martin Luther King Jr.'s 'Letter from a Birmingham Jail' and James Forman's 'Black Manifesto'"

11:30 a.m.

Hendricks 122: Margaret Folsom and Rebecca Wendelken, "Something Old, Something New: Wild Silk in the Early Silk Trade and the Use of Native Silk Moths for Student Research"

Yarborough Auditorium, Clark Hall: Whitney Larrimore Strickland, "Exploring Discourse Communities to Teach Composition"

Alumni Dining Room, Berns Student Center: Matt Dobra, "Formulating Research Policy on Expert Advice: Lessons from the Australian National Research Assessment"

FRIDAY, APRIL 19

11:00 a.m.

Hendricks 122: Cristina Francescon, "The Internment of Anti-Fascist Soldiers of the Emilia-Romagna: Consequences of the Italian Armistice of September 8, 1943"

Yarborough Auditorium, Clark Hall: Rachel Herrick, "The Museum for Obeast Conservation Studies: Re-Humanizing the Obesity Epidemic through Plausible Absurdity"

Alumni Dining Room, Berns Student Center: Emily Leverett, "An Affective Romance? Genre Blending in The Siege of Jerusalem"

11:30 a.m.

Hendricks 122: Stephanie Hooper-Marosek, "The Forensic Application of Analyzing of Hemoglobin in Bone and Teeth Samples"

Yarborough Auditorium, Clark Hall: Daniel Chin, "A Test of Unbiasedness and Sports Book Profits in the NFL Point Spread Betting Market Using Circadian Advantage"

Alumni Dining Room, Berns Student Center: Kelly Walter Carney, "Scholarship of Teaching and Learning: Where Do I Begin?"